

Jean Monnet Seminar "The future of Europe: a commitment for You(th)"
 Jointly organised by the European Commission and the European Movements
Rome, Thursday 23 – Friday 24 March 2017 - Hotel Quirinale, Via Nazionale, 7, 00184 Roma
Draft Programme

Day 1 (23 March)

14:00–14:30	Registration of participants
14:30-14:45	Welcome remarks: For the European Commission: Mikel Landabaso Alvarez, European Commission, DG Communication – Director of Directorate Strategy and Corporate Communication (5 min) For the European Movement: Yves Bertoncini, President of the French Council of the European Movement and Director of Delors Institute (5 min)
14:45-15:45	Round table discussion on the future of Europe: moderated by Eric Jozsef (Italian correspondent for Libération and Swiss Le Temps) Emma Bonino, Former Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs and European Commissioner Renaud Dehousse, President of the European University Institute Sneška Quaedvlieg-Mihailović (TBC), Secretary-General of Europa Nostra Kalypso Nicolaïdis (TBC), Professor of International Relations at the University of Oxford Stefano Maullu, Member of European Parliament – Vice-Chair of Committee on Culture and Education Followed by Q/A session
15:45-16:15	Coffee break
16:15-16:45	Keynote speech: Anthony L. Gardner, former US Ambassador to the EU (30 min)
16:45-17:45	Introduction to "Day 2" working groups: moderated by Eva Giovannini (Italian RAI journalist) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) What method for the reform of the European Union? (15 min) Interventions by Ken Endō, Professor of International Politics, Department of Politics, School of Law, Hokkaido University, Sapporo and Nicolas Moës, Jean Monnet project "European Horizons" 2) Role of citizens, academia and young people in the construction of the future European Union (15 min) Interventions by Jörg Monar, President of the College of Europe and Ecem Oskay, Erasmus+ Student and Alumni Association (ESAA) 3) Communicating Europe: how to reach the 'hard-to-reach' (15 min) Interventions by Emmi Itäranta, novelist and journalist and Olena Kryvunda, Youth Association representative Followed by Q/A session

19:45–21:00	Dinner
-------------	--------

Day 2 (24 March)

08:00–08:30	Arrival of participants and registration / Welcome Coffee
08:30-08:45	Opening of second day by Martine Reicherts , European Commission – Director-General of DG Education, Youth, Sport and Culture
08:45-10:30	Working groups
	WG 1: What method for the reform of the European Union? Moderator: Pier Virgilio Dastoli, President of the Italian Council of the European Movement Rapporteur: Jean Monnet Professor	WG 2: Role of citizens, academia and young people in constructing the future EU Moderator: Brian Holmes, Director at Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) Rapporteur: Jean Monnet Professor	WG 3: Communicating Europe: how to reach the 'hard-to-reach' Moderator: Paul Reideman Director for Media and Communication, EU Council - Council of the European Union Rapporteur: Jean Monnet Professor
10:30-11:15	Working groups' findings
11:15-11:30	Closing by Enrico Letta (TBC) , former (2013-2014) Italian Prime Minister
11:40–12:00	Transfer by bus to the "Citizens Dialogue"
12:00–13:30	"Citizens Dialogue" with HRVP Federica Mogherini

The event is organised by the European Commission on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the Rome Treaty with the support of the Italian and French European Movements and the Altiero Spinelli Centre

